“The 2018 Legend Red Blend begins with alluring aromatics of ripe black currants and blackberries which are beautifully woven together with exotic spices, chocolate shavings, forest floor, tobacco, and mineral accents that all come together and soar from the glass. On the palate this is every bit as stunning, full-bodied, intense and concentrated, yet displaying remarkable poise and balance. It continues to impress with its wonderful purity, acidity, and depth, as layers of ripe dark fruits, dark cherry, exotic spices and herbal flavors all continue to build and resonate through the long, supple finish. An impressive and flat-out delicious right now, yet should also have an extremely bright future ahead.”
